EQUALIZATION OF SALARIES. New Adjustment of the Pay of Public School Teachers.

TEACHERS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD AGREED TO BY THE TRUSTEES-CHANGES IN SALARIES-NORMAL SCHOOL GRADUATES ASSIGNED.

The equalization of the salaries of teachers in the public schools was the subject of a report presented to the board of trustees of public schools last evening by the committee on teachers. It was announced that all the salaries had been adjusted under a new system and that the longevity plan had been abolished with the exception of the pay of the normal school graduates. It was stated that reductions were found to be necessary in some cases and increases in others. The reductions, however, were about one to four as compared with the number of salaries increased. The teachers in the eighth grade were mainly affected by the reductions. The report of the committee stated that the District appropriation bill provides for 745 teachers at an annual average salary not to exceed $680, and appropriates the sum of $506,600. "Your committee was also confronted at the beginning of their task by two considerations of great weight. First, the assurance given to the appropriation committees of the two houses of Congress on the part of the board of the firm intention of the board to equalize salaries of the teachers under its control and are the salaries of the teachers under its control and the salaries of the teachers under its control and the salaries of the teachers under its control and the salaries of the teachers under its control and the salaries of the teachers under its control and the salaries of the teachers under its control and the salaries of the teachers under its control and the salaries of the teachers. salaries of the teachers under its control; and salaries of the teachers under its control; and secondly, the intent and purpose of the committees, plainly and repeatedly expressed during the past few years, that in any revision of teachers' salaries the so-called longevity system should not be retained. That the present method of adjusting salaries could not be adhered to without increasing the complexity and difficulty of organizing and maintaining the schools year by year, and especially in view the schools year by year, and especially in view the school of teachers' salaries the so-called longevity system should not be retained. That the present method of adjusting salaries could not be adhered to without increasing the complexity and difficulty of organizing and maintaining the schools year by year, and especially in view the school of the committees.

Case last year.

DISTRICT GOVERNMENT.

On Prospect avenue between 37th and 38th streets there are a number of small frame houses partially in the street. Numerous efforts have been made to have them vacated and moved. It will be remembered that on the school of the committees of difficulty of organizing and maintaining the schools year by year, and especially in view of the restrictions of the appropriation act, evidencing the opinion of Congress, seemed to your committee the only warrantable conclusion. They therefore adopted the principles referred to—equalization and the abolition of the longevity system as bases of the new adiustment.

HOW THE SCHEDULE WAS FIXED.

"In order that the teachers might receive the full benefit of the provisions of the appropriation act, a careful estimate was made of the cost of placing all teachers of each grade at the maximum salary of that grade, as provided in the existing schedule. It was found that the amount of the appropriation would not justify such a schedule by many thousands of dollars, while on the other hand a large amount of money would remain unexpended were the teachers placed at the minimum salary of their respective grades. By a careful computation of the cost involved in each change a schedule of salaries was determined on, the largest salary being provided in each case consistent with the needs of the school outside of the graded system and the requirements of the ap-

THE LONGEVITY SYSTEM. "It was deemed wise to continue the longevity system in force now and for about three 10 per cent on all goods except Domestics.

This is the great chance of your life to lay in a supply of all kinds of Dry Goods. This discount is off all marked-down prices, which makes them about 20 per cent cheaper than ever before.

Years past by an order of the board in the schools of the first and second grades, taught mainly by recent graduates of our normal school, the salaries in such grades being in no some time ago one of the clerks in question case above $500. This exception to the rule of abrogating the longevity system has met with no opposition on the part of Congress which arrived at the reduction of the higher salaries. THE GREATEST DIFFICULTY the peculiar state of salaries in the eighth-grade schools and the entire lack of flexibility in attempting to remedy the matter, owing to the restrictions of the appropriation act. In this grade nearly all the teachers received at least $1,000, while many received between that amount and $1,500—the maximum pay of the grade. The decision of the controller of the Treasury to the effect that any decrease in the number of teachers in any grade. in the number of teachers in any grade of salary above $1,000, with a corresponding increase in the number at some lower grade, also above $1,000, even though the aggregate amount should not be increased, would be contrary to the provisions of the appropriation set left practically but one solution of be contrary to the provisions of the appropriation act, left practically but one solution of the question—to assign all eighth-grade teachers now receiving $1,000 or more as principals of buildings, as far as practicable, at their present salaries. It is recommended that teachers of this grade who are assigned as principals now receiving less than $1,000 be placed at $975, and all teachers of this grade now receiving less than $1,000, not principals, receive ceiving less than $1,000, not principals, receive

The report was adopted and ordered to be printed.

THE SCHEDULE OF SALARIES referred to in the report is as follows: First and second grades-first year, $400; second, $425; third, $450; fourth, $475; fifth, $500; third grade, $550; fourth grade, $650; fifth grade, $750; sixth grade, $775; seventh grade, $950 to $1,500, inclusive.

SOME DIFFERENCES EXPLAINED. An inquiry was made both by Mr. White and Mr. Mitchell as to the cause of the difference in the salaries of teachers in the same grade. It was explained that the longevity rule was applied to those teachers receiving less than $500. Twenty-five dollars were added to their salaries for each year of service. The normal graduates, it was said, began with $400 salary, and received an increase of $25 each year independent of the grade to which they were assigned. ASSIGNING NORMAL SCHOOL GRADUATES.

A resolution was adopted to elect the first twenty-nine graduates of the Washington normal school to teachers' positions, to be assigned later. The names of these graduates are as follows: Charles K. Finckel, Emma Bettes, Jane R. Furmage, Mabel Coleman, Mary F. Ossire, Myra M. Hendley, Margaret H. Wasney, Blanche Campbell, Susie M. Kuhner, Edith W. Meloy, Nellie M. Shields, Emma V. ANATOMICAL CHARTS. The chair called the attention of the board to the appropriation in the contingent fund of at 4:32 p.m. $2,500 for the purchase of anatomical charts. He wished to know what disposition should be made of this money.

Mr. Mitchell was of the opinion that the matter should be referred to a special committee, as there was a complication arising from the claim made by one of the manufacturers of these charts that this appropriation was made through his efforts on assurances that his charts would be purchased.

would be purchased.

It was suggested by Mr. Darlington that as the law appropriating the money did not specify any special charts the board could not be bound by an understanding, either written or implied. He therefore moved to refer the matter to the committee on text books, with instructions to report what charts, in their opinion, were the best and could be obtained at the most reasonable price. His motion was adopted.

Yesterday afternoon he was stripped to the waist and hand-cuffed to the iron grating of his cell. A strap bound to a stout stick had been prepared. One of the keepers brought the lash down with a will, but there was no cry for mercy. Each blow was accompanied by a low groan.

the 16th of last May the old board of Commissioners, acting upon numerous complaints from property owners in the vicinity and the recommendation of Capt. Symons, issued an order directing that the occupants of the houses in question be notified to vacate within thirty days. At the expiration of the time the houses still stood. Upon the recommendation of several parties interested in the matter the time for removal was extended several times, the last date of expiration being July 17. On the 19th instant Lieut. Hollinberger called the Commissioners' attention to the case and said there seemed to be no disposition on the part the 16th of last May the old board of Commiscommissioners' attention to the case and said there seemed to be no disposition on the part of the occupants to move. The case was then submitted to Attorney Riddle for his opinion as to the Commissioners' power to remove the houses. In his opinion, which he rendered today, he says: "There can be no doubt as to the power and as little of the necessity for its exercise. I would send a prudent, careful officer, one or more, a lieutenant or sergeant of police, with laborers—a man who understands moving with laborers—a man who understands moving structures—and move them onto some vacant common ground, doing as little damage as possible to houses and goods." The Commissioners will issue an order shortly directing the police to move the houses at once.

LEAVES WITH PAY OF PER DIEM EMPLOYES. There is under the District government a number of clerks not on the regular roll, but who work the year round. In a great majority clerks, and addressed a communication to the Commissioners asking if it was not possible to give them leave with pay. The matter will be considered by the Commissioners, and it is possible that they will issue an order giving the per diem employes in the District buildings leave with pay.
